

Don't Deport Me Scotty

Breakthrough features new animation – Don't Deport Me, Scotty!

Check out Breakthrough's video, Don't Deport Me, Scotty, (<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=g3roru0EXRs>) and see what happens when a permanent member of a popular space crew finds his status is in question. In any galaxy, when we deny due process and human rights to some, we put all of our freedoms at risk.

Nearly 7,000 viewers have already watched Breakthrough's animation on YouTube, and an estimated 79,000 saw the animation when it was screened through Arthouse Cinemas before feature-film presentations. During the months of December and January, Don't Deport Me Scotty was screened 1,790 times at the Angelika Film Center in New York City and the Laemmle Theaters in Los Angeles, California.
