

Expanding the News Lens
Through Ethnic Media

The First & Largest Collaboration of Ethnic News Organizations

Disappeared in America

Disappeared in America is a new, regular feature profiling immigrants who've been detained or deported and whose cases illustrate unjust or inhumane features of the Department of Homeland Security's immigration and detention systems. Contact the editor of the series, Camille T. Taiara, at ctaiara@newamericamedia.org.

News

Home

All News Topics

News By Ethnicities

African

African American

Asian

South Asian

European

Indigenous

Latino

Middle Eastern

Intersections

Special Beats

Disappeared in America

Education

Environment / Energy

Health

Immigration

International Affairs

NAM in Washington

Youth Culture

Multimedia

The "Disappeared in America" column shares the same name as an independent, ongoing art project launched in New York in 2004. Visible Collective/Naeem Mohaiemen's project works on art interventions around hyphenated identities and security panic, and can be viewed at www.disappearedinamerica.org.

News > Disappeared in America

Latin-American Intellectuals Join Ranks of 'Ideologically Excluded'

New America Media, Investigation, Camille T. Taiara, Nov 13, 2006

Indigenous Bolivian professor Waskar Ari was well on his way to a distinguished academic career in the U.S. -- until he left the country briefly in 2005 and wasn't let back in.

Update: Hosseini Freed From Detention

New America Media, News Update, Camille T. Taiara, Oct 19, 2006

An Iranian immigration detainee featured in Disappeared in America on Oct. 10 was released last week. NAM spoke to him by phone.

- Up Front Radio
- neTVision
- Photo Galleries
- PhotoBlog

Resources

- RSS
- Book Store
- Newsletters
- Directory
- NAM Profiles
- Writer's Guidelines

Information

- NAM in the News
- Press Room
- Calendar
- Subscription
- Donation
- About Us
- Contact Us

Spotlight

Subscription

Terror Suspect in U.S. Caught in Legal No Man's Land

New America Media, Investigative Reporting, Camille T. Taiara, Oct 10, 2006

The federal government used flimsy evidence to label Massoud Hosseini, originally from Iran, a terrorist. Now he faces execution at home – and indefinite detention in the United States

After Years In Limbo -- More Immigrant Detainees Choose 'Voluntary' Deportation

New America Media, News Feature, Camille T. Taiara, Aug 07, 2006

A Sikh man chooses to be deported back to India, where he had been tortured, rather than languish in limbo in detention in California. 'Disappeared in America' profiles immigrants who've been detained or deported and whose cases illustrate unjust or inhumane features of Homeland Security's immigration and detention systems. Traducción al español

New NAM Column To Cover Immigrants Who Have Disappeared

New America Media, Press Release, Aug 07, 2006

A new column on the New America Media website features stories of people lost in the post-9/11 security system, showing how the issue cuts across all immigrant groups.

News > Disappeared in America

New America Media is a project of Pacific News Service | Copyright © Pacific News Service